VOL. 3. NO 15

LOMOND, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, NOV. 15, 1918.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

LOCALS

The best news THE PRESS has to offer this issue is that a well of good water has been secured on the townsite by boring seventy-three feet. The flow is about twenty gallons a minute and the water has practically no mineral taste and very soft. The town council had the well bored.

W. J. Aseltine and family have returned from the 'flu-ridden East. They maintain the West is getting but a bare touch of the real thing in epidemics.

o o o

A representative of the Provincial Board of Health was here this week conferring on municipal hospital business. If Lomond is to win out it will require immediate organization and a good deal of hard work to buck against Enchant, Vulcan and Bassano, all of which towns are hedging against Lomond. Study up the proposition and get in line to boost for this location.

o o o

G. W. Boyd, manager of the Union Bank at Bassano, died from pneumonia. Wm. Murchison of Champion, formerly of Bassano, also died from the same cause. "Jack" Hellevang of Majorville also died from pneumonia while on a visit to his brother at Medicine Hat, and during the same week the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Hellevang succumbed to the same disease.

o o o

F. M. Anderson returned to Vulcan Thursday, having been called over the week before by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. King.

As a matter of business, what do you think of the plan?

You are a farmer.

Canada is a farming country.

Canada grows more food than the people of Canada need.

To prosper she must sell that surplus food.

Great Britain is our best customer for grain, pork, beef, cheese and other farm products.

Every practical man must see how important it is to hold the British trade. Canada wants not only the profit on this trade, she wishes to create a goodwill in Britain towards Canadian products and thus assure our export business for the future.

At the moment Great Britain asks for credit, asks Canada to sell her the products of the farm, "on time." To hold her trade, it is necessary to give this credit.

This takes capital—immense capital. For Britain's purchases from Canada are huge, and these purchases must be paid for in cash.

In these times, it is not easy even for a nation as wealthy as Canada to procure money. Certainly, no other country can lend us money. The only way now open for Canada to secure money is to borrow from the people of Canada.

This is the reason for selling Victory Bonds.

Can anyone deny the sound business sense of this plan of protecting our valuable market?

From the standpoint of the man who lends, what better security could he get for his money? Where else could he get a five and a half per cent. return on such security? Where would he find an investment to pay interest so regularly and with so little trouble to the lender? Certainly Canadians have an opportunity to benefit very directly from this borrowing plan.

And the money Canada borrows is spent entirely in Canada—a very large part of it for the very crops the farmer has to sell.

Therefore, if the Victory Loan is a success, business in Canada must be good, the nation must prosper and so be able to carry on a vigorous war effort in France and Flanders.

As a practical man you must approve of the Victory Loan plan.

Then help it along. Put your own money into Victory Bonds; urge your friends to buy; work hard among your loyal neighbors to make the Victory Loan 1918 an overwhelming success.

NOTES

As a word of explanation we would state that this issue of THE PRESS must necessarily serve for both Nov. 8 and 15. Serious illness in the family household made it necessary to ignore business obligations entirely. Time has sped by as if in the wake of a meteor, and all the while the whole world has been in the throes of momentous happenings. The cessation of hostilities has stupefied mankind with gladness and paralyzed all sense of responsibility. The re-action has barely set in and we must needs prepare for the long period of readjustment.

o o o
"THE WAR HAS ENDED"—the gladdest tidings of the past four years came with official confirmation Monday morning. Not exactly was it unexpected, yet the almost instant disintegration of the Central empires was barely conceivable after the four years' campaign they had successfully carried on. While never doubting the ultimate result, it must be admitted that until July of this year our enemies wore the earmarks of the victor. As one British statesman quoted in the house last spring, "If I were a German I would feel justified in thinking Germany had won the war." Undaunted by the overwhelming odds, British bull dog tenacity has again triumphed over autocratic militarism.

o o o
If, as the authorities claim, there is such a scarcity of beef in Europe, why not control the market so as to give heart to cattle owners to go to the expense of winter feeding.

o o o
Now is the time to put pep in the hospital campaign. We now have the opportunity within our grasp but a little procrastination will spoil the whole shootin' match. Get busy.

o o o
No relaxation should be made in the 'flu prevention and the Victory Loan campaign.

o o o
Why not make a skating rink out of the tennis court grounds? A little winter sport would while away a good many long winter evenings.

Jack Canuck—Storekeeper

IN Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Jack Canuck is running an immense produce business these days.

He has millions of bushels of grain; boat loads of flour; vast herds of cattle, sheep and pigs; butter, cheese and poultry and other food supplies by the trainload.

The customers at his counter are Great Britain, France and Italy, whose credit is unquestionable, but who are just now short of cash. So Jack Canuck in order to sell his goods must give his customers credit until the war is won.

It is just the same situation that confronts every storekeeper who gives farmers credit until their crops are harvested.

So Jack Canuck borrows money on Victory Bonds in order to give credit to his customers.

He pays good interest on Victory Bonds. He offers as security all Canada and everything contained therein.

By issuing Victory Bonds Jack Canuck keeps his big business going—and all the money he borrows from Canadians he spends in Canada.

We must buy Victory Bonds in order that the business of Jack Canuck shall remain prosperous and healthy.

We must buy Victory Bonds in order that our brave and gallant army shall have food, clothing and ammunition to win complete Victory over the enemies of our country.

Custom Tailoring Dept.

Shop of "Fashion-Craft"

Many men are not aware of the existence of such a department in our store; although we are, through this department, affiliated with one of the largest and finest custom-tailoring houses in the world:

We do not think it necessary to-day to draw any comparisons with the product of the small, one-horse tailor, as any man must admit that an aggregation of experts, surrounded by every facility, will produce garments beyond the hope of any individual mechanic, regardless of the attention he might give to the production of each garment.

The expert designer, the expert cutter, the numerous expert mechanics working in harmony under ideal conditions in a shop that for twenty years has sought the best methods to improve a product, now offer "Fashion-Craft" custom-made clothes.

Price no Feature

The shop of "Fashion-Craft" makes no feature of price. The standard of workmanship and quality of cloths are reckoned with first. The intrinsic value is the basis of cost.

The fashion portfolio and several hundred cloth samples are open at our shop for your inspection. May we suggest that our own custom-tailoring experience and years of close observation on the workings and results of the various weaves may greatly assist you in securing an entirely satisfactory suit.

NEW BOOK BY CANADIAN AUTHOR

An English reviewer recently, in reviewing the poems of Robert J. C. Stead, said that while Canada's troops had done nobly in the war such writers as Stead were doing a no less valuable service in building up a genuine national literature. The reader who is wise enough to obtain a copy of "The Cow Puncher," Mr. Stead's latest novel, will agree with the English reviewer. It is a genuine contribution to the national wealth of Canada, made by a writer whose intimate knowledge of the West peculiarly qualifies him for such a service.

Since Robert Stead wrote his famous poem on the death of Kitchener all who profess to be informed on current literature have been more or less conversant with his work. His collection, "Kitchener and Other Poems" published last fall, was a best seller, and is still in considerable demand. The English edition is reported to have been a big success in Great Britain. His previous novel, "The Homesteaders," has been so continuously sold out on the Canadian market that a new edition has just been issued in Canada.

"The Cow Puncher" promises to add to a reputation already well established. It is not merely a novel; it is an event in the literary life of the country. Dr. W. T. Allison, professor of English, and well known litterateur, declares that it is the biggest thing in a literary way that ever came out of the prairie country. It is very pleasant reading, and there is a unique vein of humor and philosophy which has caused it to be called the David Harum of Canada. But "The Cow Puncher" is by no means literary pastime. Its note is in keeping with the serious business of the times, and in its closing chapters it rises to a patriotic level not excelled by any present writer.

It is not our purpose here to outline the plot of "The Cow Puncher," you will enjoy it more to read it in the author's own words. The book is published in Canada by the Musson Book Co., of Toronto, and in the United States by Harper & Brothers. It is attractively illustrated by Arthur Heming, one of Canada's most successful artists.

AND IT CAME TO PASS

This is an item set for Nov. 8, the issue we did not publish:—

Taking the opinion of well informed authorities, Germany is still far from a military defeat. Then again, it would appear that a process of political disintegration was spreading fast throughout Austria-Hungary. It is hard to believe that the end can really be close at hand, but then it was equally hard to believe that war would be declared 'way back in 1914.

Perhaps you will require a new heater, or maybe only a few lengths of pipe and some weather strip. Whatever it may be you will do well to look after it now.

The 'flu has taken a decided slump. A few new cases are being reported, among these being George Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warner as well as Mrs. Oscar Olson. Pneumonia took hold of several cases. Mrs. Robt. Alexander, Mrs. J. Hartwick, Mrs. R. L. King and Harry Lynck were among the serious cases. Dr. Walkey has been on the jump since the epidemic broke out and the inestimable service rendered by the teaching staff is worthy of public commendation.

An X-ray water fakir has been doing a flourishing business around the district at $25 a bite.

The 'flu is the best reducing agent we know of. There are numerous examples in evidence right now.

The J. Munro and R. A. Ferris families are moving to Calgary this week. Mrs. Armstrong is now in charge of the post office and Mrs. Watkins is taking over the rooming house.

Miss Wilson is over from Champion with her sister, Mrs. Walkey, convalescing from the 'flu.

Irrigation water is now flooding the valley and has driven cars on the bridge trail when going to Vulcan.

Mr. Simms is building a new store at Kinnondale. At present his son is just recovering from appendicitis.

May Electrify England.

The universal electrification of all Great Britain, including the railroads and all factories, is the gigantic project promulgated by the Coal Economy Committee for the reconstruction commission and announced by the Minister of Reconstruction. It includes the use of electricity for domestic purposes.

It is proposed to consolidate all the electrical establishments of the United Kingdom and create sixteen gigantic central super-power stations of 20,000 to 50,000 horsepower each, supplying their districts through trunk lines. It is calculated that this project would save $500,000,000 in coal annually and would end the notorious London smoke.

Probably it would end the London fogs also, as they are caused by peculiar atmospheric conditions through which a blanket of smoke is held over the city.

An immense cheapening of power is promised, resulting in the greater employment of mechanical power and an increase in the industrial output. The commission finds that America employs nearly twice as much power per workman as Great Britain, which explains the greater American production per capita.

Epidemic Influenza

Instructions Regarding the Care of SICK PERSONS

Since thousands of people are nursing influenza patients in the province, the following instructions will be of value:

- 1—Fresh air is the most essential requisite to the comfort and well-being of patients, no matter how ill.
- 2—Rest in bed for three days after fever has gone is urged to prevent complications.
- 3—Pneumonia cases should not be kept in the same room with uncomplicated influenza cases.
- 4—Nourishing food at regular intervals.
- 5—Plenty of water or lemonade.
- 6—General Unworried Service. Avoid chattering, nagging or questioning; anticipate wants of sickest patients, convalescents usually ask for what they want; keep the patients in isolated room, in separate beds; keep patient in bed all the time (this means patient must not get up to go to the bathroom); two or three pillows arranged step fashion, the lowest well under the shoulders, will make breathing easier; keep the arms and shoulders well covered; ventilate the room freely; at the outset, headache and backache are frequent; cold cloths (moist but not dripping) to the head, changed frequently, give some relief; avoid anything that might cause the slightest chill.

CARE OF MOUTH—A mouth wash every few hours and cold cream to the lips help to keep the mouth in a normal condition.

If patient is extremely weak, swab the teeth carefully with moistened cotton applications three times daily.

COUGH—Patient should keep mouth covered when coughing. Paper napkins or three thicknesses of toilet paper, used only once, are safer and better than rags or handkerchiefs. Keep a small paper bag pinned to bedside within easy reach of patient's hand, to receive the used napkins. Change bag at least twice daily, or whenever it becomes half full.

The invisible spray from the mouth and nose during coughing and sneezing is as dangerous as visible expectoration. Convalescent patients can be masked; weak patients are annoyed by them.

FOOD—For the unhappy, feverish patients, liquid diet, hot or cold, as preferred—milk, lemonade, weak tea and coffee broths. For the convalescent and patients not feverish, soft diet—gruels, cooked cereals, milk toast, jellies, soft boiled eggs, etc.

Food may be kept warm in a thermos bottle.

All patients should drink some water every hour when awake.

PRECAUTIONS—All mouth washes, bath water, exeta, and uneaten liquid food should be thrown into the toilet by the attendant.

All bags, napkins, scraps of uneaten food, mouth swab, etc., should be wrapped in clean newspaper before being carried to the kitchen to be destroyed by burning.

All linen—sheets, masks, towels, etc., should be submerged in a large kettle of cold water in the sickroom, or put in a pillow-slip or laundry bag. This can be safely carried to the kitchen stove, and when contents have been boiled five minutes anyone may finish caring for the linen. When attendant cannot stop to wash her own hands, door knobs, faucets, etc., should be protected by scraps of newspaper, which may be destroyed after each using. Attendants must be constantly masked, must wear big all-over aprons in sick room, changing it to a different one always before entering any other part of the house. Attendant must have facilities for washing her own hands, soap, nail brush and paper towels, in a clean place and never touch the patient or patient's utensils without afterward cleansing her own hands thoroughly. Running water is better and safer than a basin of weak disinfectant kept for the hands alone.

Everything used for the patient should be kept separate from the supplies for the rest of the household. This means dishes, bed linen, bath wraps, towels, face cloths; rocking chair, etc.

Families can help visiting nurses and aids by having hot water, towels and newspapers ready when nurses are expected.

NOTICE TO SOLDIERS ON HARVEST LEAVE.

Attention is directed to a recent announcement published in the Press by the Military Service Branch, Department of Justice, regarding extensions to be granted to men EXEMPTED AS FARMERS.

It is pointed out that this DOES NOT IN ANY WAY AFFECT MEN WHO HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE REGISTRAR TO REPORT to Depot Battalions and who have thereafter received leave of absence from the Military Authorities.

Once a man has been ordered to report for duty by the Registrar he leaves the jurisdiction of the Registrar and comes under that of the Department of Militia and Defence, and is to be considered as a soldier. This applies to men of the 20 to 22 Class who have been ordered to report by the Registrar in virtue of the cancellation of exemptions by Order-in-Council of the 20th April last, as well as to those ordered to report in the usual way on refusal of claim for exemption, or on expiration of exemption granted.

All men, accordingly, who have been ordered to report, and are therefore SOLDIERS, and who have subsequently been granted harvest leave by the military authorities, MUST, NOTWITHSTANDING THE NOTICE ABOVE REFERRED TO, REPORT ON THE EXPIRATION OF THAT LEAVE, unless they are notified to the contrary by their Commanding Officer, or by general notice published by the Department of Militia and Defence.

TRAVESR

The many friends of Mrs. George Kaump will be glad to know that she has passed the danger point with the 'flu.

Messrs. St. John, Suffern and Hooker journeyed to Lethbridge Monday night to help celebrate the "11th. hour of the 11th. day of the 11th. month"—the ending of the war. Travers was very quiet. Closing of the business places was the only indication of anything doing. Where are our flags? Now is the time to have them waving.

Still, Travers is one of the few towns without the 'flu.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kaump, at Stav, on Oct. 22nd., a daughter.

Mrs. Nichol and Mrs. Trent were called to Gleichen by the death of their sister. While there Mrs. Trent contracted the 'flu also and was very ill for a time, but is now better.

Dr. MacLean, the new physician at Retlaw, was a caller here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott, late of Lethbridge, have again taken up residence in Travers.

Mr. Murphy has started just the sort of store we needed in Travers—a good line of toilet articles, stationery, patent medicines, fresh candy and tobacco, etc. He has renovated his building and is now in readiness to serve the public. Watch for his line of Christmas toys and gifts.

Mr. Greenier is visiting his wife in St. Paul.

Coyote hunting is the sport of the day just now, as it is also profitable, hides averaging $15.

The epidemic of the 'flu is gradually passing away and everything is getting back into normal condition. Watch out for further notices of meetings, etc. Further notice of a general Red Cross meeting will appear soon.

Mr. Jacobson was suddenly called to Brandon on account of the death of his wife, pneumonia following influenza.

Miss Childs, the postmistress, is visiting friends in Elko, B.C. Mrs. Naysmith is substituting just now.

There was some drill in "gas masks" here Thursday afternoon. It did not take long for the gas signal to be known, although there were a few that missed the same and were up before the Colonel. Six dollars a-piece was the penalty paid.

Dan McLean was suddenly called to Lethbridge by the serious illness of his sister with the 'flu.

Mrs. Winslow, formerly of Travers, died from pneumonia at the Taber hospital Oct. 30th., also her infant child.

NOTICE

Military Service Act, 1917.

EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

"106. Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted or is absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service, imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he made due inquiry and that THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE MAN SO EMPLOYED OR RETAINED IN HIS SERVICE WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction by such inquiry and papers that the man was not a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

"106A. Every person who HARBOURS OR CONCEALS OR IN ANY WAY ASSISTS ANY MAN WHO IS A DESERTER OR ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FROM THE CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable upon summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to suspect that the man so harboured, concealed, or assisted was a deserter or absent from the forces without leave or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."
